

CV

Michael Nischke (* 1956 in Berlin-Schmargendorf) came to photography during his school days in Oslo, Norway. He later completed a photo degree in Cologne and assisted Prof. Heinrich Riebesehl from 1983 to 1986.

In addition to his practical, photographic work for well-known publishers, he wrote a large number of renowned and award-winning specialist books and was responsible for the technology department as a member of Photo International's chief editor.

He is considered one of the protagonists of panorama photography in Germany and is also an appointed member of the German Society for Photography (DGPh).

Michael Nischke has published more than 50 books and art calendars in recent years. He ran his own photo gallery in Munich until 2020.
